A Response to the Provision of God

Jesus taught His disciples to pray, “Give us this day our daily bread” (Matthew 6:11). This principle of prayer is the believer’s response to the power and provision of God. The Father cares about the intimate details of the lives of His children. One hair cannot fall off the head of His child without His knowledge. He is able to meet every need of His children. The secret of kingdom living is childlike faith. This generation of Christians needs a fresh understanding of God, our provider.

This is a simple cry to point our finger toward heaven. Look unto God. He is our provider. Call unto Him, and He will meet every need of our lives.

Jehovah Jireh, I have so much more than I could ever want or need...and yet, it seems I am always desiring more possessions, more comfort, more vacation time...and on and on. You provide everything and still I am not satisfied with what I have. Give me a heart like those who are simply content to be Your children, and who live in simple trust that You are faithful to meet every need.
